WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today urged Congress to curb "corruption, racketeering and abuse of trust and power in the labor-management field." He made the recommendation in a 12-point proposal for legislation.

In a special message, Eisenhower recommended specifically that unions be subject to loss of legal bargaining status if they fail to file true and proper data on their finances and other subjects. Against a background of congressional inquiries disclosing abuses in the labor-management field, Eisenhower called for legislation "to benefit and protect the welfare of American workers and the general public."

He added it should curb abuses, and provide greater harmony and stability in labor-management relations.

The entire 12-point legislative program recommended by Eisenhower had been unveiled previously by Secretary of Labor Mitchell. He outlined it in a speech at the AFL-CIO convention last December.

As given out in the Mitchell address, the program had drawn fire from both labor leaders who contended it went too far, and management spokesmen who said it did not go far enough.

Coupled with the normal political warfare of congressmen on labor matters in an election year, that lack of enthusiasm lessened chances for major parts of the program to get through this year.

Abuses at which Eisenhower aimed have been sharply outlined in hearings before the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee headed by Sen. McClellan (D-Ark). That group is preparing its own proposed remedies.

Reorganize Military Forces, Suggests Clay

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Lucius Clay (ret) proposed to investigating senators today that U.S. military forces be drastically reorganized with all major command elements in the same uniform and under a single chief.

Clay said single control is necessary because "no future commander is going to fight a war with the weapons of one service."

Clay, a friend of President Eisenhower, is a former commander of U.S. forces in Europe. He is now head of Continental Can Co. and a director of other large corporations.

He testified before the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, headed by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, as that group sought to wind up the current phase of its missile-satellites inquiry.

Clay urged greatly increased power and authority for both the secretary of defense and the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

He said the secretary should have authority to transfer the billions of dollars of defense funds from one purpose to another, in order to push research and development.

He said the JCS chairman, now a nonvoting member of the group that includes top service commanders, should take over their authority.

He said the present JCS now is "just another committee" and they should serve only as advisers.

"The time has come when senior officers should belong to the same service and wear the same uniform," he said.

He said this still would permit some specialists who could be promoted in their separate fields.

"We have to have that kind of a defense organization because we can't afford any other," Clay said.

In advance of the committee session Sen. Bridges (R-NH) said "we must lighten our belts, and do more perhaps for years to come" to surpass the Soviet Union in missiles and satellites.

ROCHON WON'T APPEAL

MONTREAL (UP) — Canadian tennis ace Henri Rochon, who has been a member of 10 Davis Cup teams, doesn't plan to appeal his indefinite suspension by the Province of Quebec Lawn Tennis Association Council. The 33-year-old Rochon was set down Tuesday night for remarks "derogatory to the council" in 1956.

Increase in Insurance Rates Denied

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Insurance Commissioner Harvey C. Combs today rejected a proposed increase of 26.4 per cent in automobile liability insurance rates and 11 per cent boost in collision rates.

But Combs warned that unless the Arkansas traffic toll is lowered the trend will be toward higher car insurance rates.

The proposed increases are not included in the franchise tax computation.

No immediate decision was made on the case by the PSC.

The commission ruled recently that Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. could pass on to subscribers any excess charges above a new municipal tax formula set by the PSC. The ruling has been appealed to the courts.

More Calls Set Off Search of Central High

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two more anonymous telephone calls, both apparently from teen-aged white youths, set off new searches of Integrated Central High School for explosives, police reported today.

Nothing was found in either instance acting Police Chief Eugene Smith said.

One call was received by Little Rock television station KTHV last night.

The second call was received today by the Arkansas Gazette.

The Gazette switchboard operator quoted the caller: "I'd like to report a bomb at the school. Who do I talk with?"

Then he hung up. Both callers sounded like teen-age white boys, the Gazette and KTHV reported.

A dynamite stick was found in an empty locker at Central High Monday after an anonymous call. A search instituted Tuesday after similar call yielded nothing.

Civilian Riots Led by Young Newspaperman

By MORIS ROSENBERG

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — President Marcos Perez Jimenez fled from Venezuela today, but new bloodshed marred the wild public jubilation which followed the dictator's downfall.

Guardsmen opened fire on a crowd which moved on its headquarters to release political prisoners ordered freed by a military junta which took over the government. An undetermined number of persons were reported killed and others were wounded.

The junta rushed two tanks to the guard headquarters and appealed to the people to clear the area so the release of the prisoners could proceed.

Perez Jimenez took to his heels after a brief but bloody civilian uprising in which the military finally joined.

The junta at once began restoring some of the liberties the dictatorship of nearly 10 years had suppressed.

In addition to freedom for all political prisoners it ordered all officers who took part in the short-lived New Year's revolt restored to their ranks. Punishments against them were canceled.

Censorship was lifted. Political exiles abroad made plans to return to their homeland. Celebrating thousands jammed the streets of Caracas. They cheered wildly, waved Venezuelan flags and honked horns. Flaming waving students, the most publicly vocal of the ousted dictatorship's opponents, congregated in front of the statue of Simon Bolivar, the South American liberator.

The government radio network appeared repeatedly for the crowds to return to work and clear the streets.

This lineup was announced for the new governing junta: Rear Adm. Wolfgang Larrazabal, president; air force Col. Abel Romero Villate, army Col. Roberto Casanova, guard Col. Carlos Luis Arague and Col. Pedro Jose Quevedo for the military institutes.

Anti-Italian sentiment was noted during the rioting. A number of Italian-owned stores were looted and damaged. There are about 100,000 Italian immigrants in Venezuela.

One speaker on the government radio was Fabricio Ojeda, a reporter for the newspaper El Nacional. He was identified as president of the "Junta Patriótica" which led the civilian uprising.

Fulbright Says Ike Must Change Ways

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark) said today President Eisenhower must abandon "sugar-coated half-truths" and "which can be called forth only by a leadership with vision, with determination" and with "strength to follow through."

An uncertain call from the trumpet will not do," he said in a speech drafted for Senate delivery.

"Important and drastic changes" are needed, he said, in both domestic and foreign policy. He said the confidence of the American people in their leaders has been shaken. An ever greater danger to the future, he added, is what he called "the serious erosion of respect for our strength and judgment" among free world allies.

"There is little doubt that we will meet the immediate problem of missiles and satellites," he said, but contended that the real challenge is posed by the Soviet emphasis on scientific education.

Robert LaGrone, president of Citizens National Bank, had this to say: "Industrial expansion comes to towns and cities of Arkansas that prepare for it. We have always been vitally interested in the economy and progress of this community and we feel confident that the $50,000 campaign goal will be reached. The fruits of industrial expansion means new jobs, new life and benefits to all of us. We are glad to have a part in a campaign designed for community betterment."

Today's total of $105,055 thus far in the campaign represents 104 firms and individuals, which is slightly better than an average of $1,000 for each stockholder.

Previously reported: $84,405 First National Bank 5,000 Citizens National Bank 5,000 Hope Water & Light 5,000 Commission 5,000 Harwick Electric Co. 2,000 Crescent Drug Store 1,450 Ward & Son, Druggists 1,100 John S. Gibson Drug Co. 1,100

Student Is Reinstated at Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Darlene Holloway, 17-year-old white girl suspended Jan. 10 from Central High School after a pushing incident involving a Negro girl student, has been reinstated by the city school board effective Monday.

Darlene's mother, Mrs. Fred Gist, who had threatened to take the matter into court if necessary, said last night after a board hearing on the case that her daughter would return to classes next week.

The reinstatement was announced by the board after a closed hearing attended by school board members, Supt. Virgil T. Blossom, Mrs. Gist and her daughter, Central High officials and Amis Guthridge, attorney for Mrs. Gist. The Negro girl, earlier identified as Elizabeth Eckford, was not present.

The mother indicated she no longer contemplated any court action.

Mrs. Gist, a member of the segregationist League of Central High Mothers, had quoted her daughter as saying she pushed the Eckford girl and the Negro girl threatened to strike her.

Four of Darlene's classmates testified at the hearing. Guthridge said.

Demaret Leads Field of Pros at Thunderbird

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Three-time winner Jimmy Demaret headed a select field of 32 professionals into the first round of the $15,000 Thunderbird Invitational golf tournament today, marking his first appearance on the 1958 winter circuit.

Sir James, the Texan from Houston who heads a staff of pros at Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., has been ailing of late.

But there was nothing ailing for the past two years when Jimmy won the top money in successive appearances here.

Last year he had to dispose of Mike Souchak and Ken Venturi in an 18-hole playoff, which he did with a 68 to their respective 37, and 78.

In 1953, when the Thunderbird was a 54-hole tournament, Jimmy let fly an eagle two on the 18th hole to beat out a birdie scored by his old pal from Texas, Ben Hogan.

The tournament site is the exclusive Thunderbird Country Club, par 36-35-71 and 6,660 yards.

On the scene were such shot-makers as U.S. Open champion Dick Mayer, PGA champion, Lionel Hebert and his brother, Jay; Billy Casper, winner of the recent Bing Crosby tournament, and Frank Stranahan, who captured the $35,000 Los Angeles Open.

Utah Hires Jack as New Coach

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The University of Utah picked James H. (Bud) Jack as its new athletic director yesterday and Jack said he was "positive the university will continue to be the finest school in the Skyline Conference."

But the regents deferred picking a new head football coach, although from football coach Andy Everett was still prominent in speculation.

Jack Curtice resigned, effective March 1, as head football coach and athletic director. He is going to Stanford University to become football coach.

This is the first time in 33 years that Utah has not had a man who was both athletic director and head grid coach. The Armstrong held the post for 25 years and Curtice the following eight.

Utah won the Skyline football crown last year for the fourth time under Curtice.

Jack is a 39-year-old Salt Lake City native, a graduate of Utah and father of two daughters who was appointed assistant athletic director in 1950, the year Curtice joined the Utes Jack is also secretary to the Mountain States (Skyline) Conference athletic directors.

the word authority too much. "But in his home he should be more of a dictator—a good dictator with a sense of humor. He must remember that, after all, he chose to be the father—he was not elected."

"The American husband should exert a little more authority, not only with his children but also with his wife."

"A wife likes to be secure and protected, but she can't feel protected if she can always twist her man around her little finger and boss him. She feels lost and insecure."

To Montalban the failure of American parents to exercise more discipline on their children is little less than appalling.

"This theory that you shouldn't curb a child's instincts but let him express himself in any way, let him paint on the wall, let him do anything, even set fire to the furniture, is nothing less than catastrophic," he said.

"It makes him unhappy, not happy. Children are much happier under discipline than teaches them justice."

"Punishment, if the child knows it is fair, brings the child and parent closer. He should think of you as a friend to whom he can bring any trouble. But he must also be made to realize that while a good deed wins praise, a bad deed must be punished; or else there is no justice."

"The best way to do this is for the parent to set the right example."

And here, Montalban feels, is where some of the trouble in the American home starts. The parents can't very well discipline the kids if they can't first discipline themselves.

"Too many of us have the wrong idea of freedom," he said. "We think of freedom as the right to do anything we want to do. That is license, not liberty. True freedom is actually simply the right to do what we ought to do."

"We are too prone to discard old truths for new spectacular lies—merely because they are new and spectacular."

Amateur Rocket Range Studied

MONTAUK, N.Y. (AP) — Establishment of a rocket firing range for amateurs on the eastern end of Long Island is being considered by the Army.

A 1st Army spokesman said yesterday the Army is interested in drawing up a program acceptable to community, industrial and school leaders to encourage and supervise youngsters who are interested in building and firing rockets under adult supervision.

One of several sites being considered is Ft. Hero, which was an anti-aircraft installation until last year when it was declared obsolete.

Rockets would be fired from bunkers into the Atlantic.

There are said to be as many as 15,000,000 "sundown" farmers in the United States.

Ojeda, who said his organization represented all political factions, declared: "This is not a moment for vengeance."

The radio urged oil workers to remain calm and continue at their jobs. Despite the general strike call and the rioting in the capital, there have been no reports of any serious stoppage in the oil industry.

The Patriotic Junta declared it had directed the general strike which started Tuesday. Its leaders said they had no contact with the young military officers who grasped control of the government by informing Perez Jimenez that the country's armed forces had turned against him and that he must abandon the presidency.

Three other young civilians were identified as leaders of the Patriotic Junta. They were Sylvestre Ortiz Buzaran, 32; Guillermo Garcia Ponce, 33; and Enrique Aristeguieta, 34. The junta includes every shade of political opinion from Communists to extreme rightists.

justified at present, Combs said. He said the insurance industry has been granted "two substantial" liability rate increases in the past two years. These averaged about 15 per cent each. They were granted in February 1956 and April 1957.

The recent increases were mainly in the 25 years and under age group. The rejected increase proposal also would have affected this group most.

The National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters and the National Automobile Underwriters Assn. sought the new increases. New rates, if granted, would have applied to all firms doing business in Arkansas.

The insurance organizations based the requested boost on what they said was the mounting monetary loss from traffic accidents.

Combs said the insurance industry if it wishes may file again for rate increases or ask for a formal hearing on the rejected proposal. If the proposed boosts are rejected at a hearing the insurance organizations may appeal to Circuit Court here.

Would Require Blood Be Labeled

ATLANTA (AP) — A state senator has introduced in the Georgia Legislature a bill to require the labeling by race of human blood used for transfusions.

Sen. Quill Sammons of rural Lawrenceville described it as a segregation move.

The measure says: "No human blood not labeled in accordance with this act shall be used for blood transfusions in this state; any person about to receive a blood transfusion or the next of kin of said person shall be informed of the race of the donor."

One Dead, Six Missing in Apartment Fire

CHICAGO (AP) — A fire and explosion spread havoc through a crowded South Side apartment building early today. In the frenzy to escape, many children were dropped from windows of the four-story building.

One infant was dead and at least six other children unaccounted for. One man also was missing. At least 21 were injured. Nine were children.

"The babies were falling like rain drops," said Jack McMillan, 31, Negro, who rushed to the scene where he said he caught five children dropped from windows. He fractured a thumb while catching one child.

Fire officials said there were 150 occupants in the building's 27 apartments.

Cause of the blast was not determined immediately but authorities said there apparently was no connection between the explosion and accidental sale of a gasoline-mixture as fuel oil.

An alarm was sounded on the West Side last night warning all possible purchasers of potential danger.

Tenants in the apartment building reported they were awakened by a heavy thump and that almost at the same moment the building was aflame.

Some tenants jumped into fire nets. Others were rescued by firemen who brought them down ladders. Two or three men clinging to third-floor ledge fell when the ledge gave way.

There were numerous stories of heroism. One tenant, L. D. Dixon, 30, dropped to the ground from the third floor, then caught his wife, Alberta, 27, and their 7-year-old son.

Harvey Lee Lawrence, 30, threw his six children one after another into arms of spectators, and then dropped nine other children from a window.

In the wintry darkness, there was considerable confusion as families sought to rejoin one another.

New Storm Is Brewing in North Mexico

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A new storm brewed today in northern Mexico in the wake of winter's worst storm—one which took at least 36 lives before it spent itself over the nation's Northeast.

The weather bureau said the fresh disturbance already had brought rain and snow to Texas. It was such a storm that clobbered an area stretching from the Plains to New England.

Parts of Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin and southern Michigan were still digging out from under a snow blanket a foot thick or more.

As a parting gesture, the storm left New England coated with a treacherous glaze — the result of rain, freezing rain and sleet.

Illinois had the highest death toll with nine weather-attributed deaths. Missouri, Wisconsin, Iowa and Indiana each had six dead, and Kansas had three.

The rain area which obtained in Texas today is expected to gradually shift eastward through the Gulf states and reach the south Atlantic Coast by evening.

Discharged: Mrs. W. C. Land and baby boy, Hope, Ark.

Admitted: Mrs. R. V. Herndon, Jr., Hope, Ark.; Mrs. J. C. Foster, R. I., Fulton, Ark.; Floyd Scott, R. I., McNab, Ark.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My 28-year-old son has become entangled with a 45-year-old divorcee, the mother of two children. We've talked to the boy, our minister has urged him to give the woman up, all our friends have advised him, but he still goes with her. They have been going together for two years. He doesn't seem the least bit happy, and the friction is making our home miserable. Can you think of any arguments that will have an effect on him?

Dear E. W.: Unfortunately, each of us has the right and responsibility to make his own mistakes. Your son seems bent on his own destruction and nothing on earth can argue him out of it. You certainly have tried every human means to carry your point. There's nothing left but prayer — and a very powerful alternative it is. Rely on it, and stop nagging your son. If the constant arguments are affecting the family, it's time to end them. They've accomplished nothing so far; maybe the absence of arguing will have a better effect. If your son marries the woman, there's nothing you can do but stand around to pick up the pieces.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Will you please send me all the information you have on the etiquette of dating?

Dear K. M.: Books could — and have — been filled with the information you want. I suggest you get one. Try "Your Best Foot Forward" by Stratton and Scholman. It's published by McGraw-Hill, it costs $3.50 and can be obtained through any bookseller. You'll find it a worthwhile investment.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Greta is 16, 17 and we've been going together for six months. Her mother won't permit Greta to visit at my home for dinner and an evening of records. Is it wrong for a girl to come in a boy's home under these conditions? If it's okay, how can we get her mom's permission?

Dear Stevie: No, there certainly is nothing wrong in a girl visiting a boy friend and his family. After all, the boy's folks have as much right to know the girl their son is dating as a girl's parents have to know the boy. Try having your mother extend the invitation through Greta's mom. If Greta's folks are new at this dating business, they may really be uncertain about some things, including the present problem.

Dear Dorothy Dix: While Gary and I were going steady, several other boys asked me out. Finally, I suggested that we break up so I'd have a chance to play the field. Then one night we both turned up at the same party. He was with another girl, which not only created jealousy, but made me realize how much I loved him. I asked him to resume our former status, but he said he wasn't sure if he wanted to. How can I get him back?

Dear Velma: So the big idea backfired. And you don't like it one bit! Well, all you can do is sit tight and await developments. The next move is Gary's. If he doesn't come back, you still have the field.

Show Goes on Despite Snow

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The show went on despite the snow last night as an audience of 366 persons showed up for a concert by the Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra and violinist Ivo Franciscati.

Under normal weather conditions, the turnout would have numbered around 2,400.

Franciscati, the soloist, arrived in Kansas City by bus from Wichita before noon yesterday in time for the tail end of a rehearsal.

The Kinn group at a meeting the night before the beating and that Rochester "told us what to do" at the Cruell home.

Case Against Klan Resumed in S. Carolina

GREENVILLE, S.C. (AP) — The state resumes building its case today in the conspiracy trial of 31 white men charged in the flogging of a Negro landowner because of his association with his white tenants.

Solicitor (Prosecutor) James R. Mann entered into the court record yesterday statements taken from each of the 31 defendants shortly after their arrest following the July 21, 1957 flogging.

Nine admitted membership in the Ku Klux Klan, the 10th acknowledged Gavin applied for membership and attending a couple of meetings and the 11th was identified by his fellows as the Klan's chaplain.

All are from the Greenville County area.

The victim, Claud Cruell, 58, a Baptist deacon who owns a 100-acre farm near Travelers Rest just north of here, testified that he did not recognize any of the defendants. His wife Fannie, 54, also told the jury of white men that she did not recognize the defendants.

The beating occurred while the Cruells were caring for seven children of Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Turner, white neighbors who rented a house on Cruell's property for $5 a month. Mrs. Turner, at the time, was confined to a hospital and her husband was visiting her.

Testifying in the probed courtroom, which numbered about 60 Negroes among the 250 spectators, Cruell told how a group of white men swarmed into his five-room house as he sat in the kitchen.

"You're the one we want," Cruell testified one of the men told him, holding a shotgun muzzle about eight inches from his chest.

He said they wrapped a chain around his right arm and pulled him to the dining room.

"I prayed, but they beat me so long, I fell on the floor," he said. "Then they kicked me."

Lt. Harold O. Fortson of the South Carolina State Law Enforcement Division read from the statement of defendant Johnny Frank Quinn, 24.

The statement said that defendant Andrew Marshall Rochester, 30, had been elected head of

Stage Set to Rematch Mims and B. Boyd

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The stage was set today for a rematch between Holly Mims, veteran Washington scrappier, and Bobby Boyd, lanky puncher from Chicago, to decide which of these two mediocre middleweights is the better.

Mims and Boyd fought to a draw in the Auditorium Arena last night. Promoter Chris Dundee said later, "I love to rematch them."

Neither fighter was badly damaged in the 10-round scrap. Boyd hit the canyons in the middle of the eighth round after a solid right to the chin.

"Next to the punch that knocked Pat Byers, this was the best one shot I ever landed," said Mims, who has had 64 ring engagements in 10 years. "It was a perfect right hand; right on the button."

Boyd, who thought he won, admitted it was a solid blow, but

Anderson, Mark Score Upsets

SYDNEY (AP) — Roy Emerson and Bob Mark scored the biggest upset of the Australian National Tennis Championships today. They beat Mal Anderson and Mervyn Rose, Australia's Davis Cup pair, in the semifinals of the doubles 5-7, 6-4, 13-11, 2-6, 6-4.

Americans Barry Mackay and Mike Green were beaten in the other doubles semifinal by Neale Fraser and Ashley Cooper 12-10, 6-3, 6-3.

Mims, who had not fought since April, said he was tense and needed a warmup.

Mims weighed 156 to Boyd's 161½. He crouched and ducked and tied up his taller foe with arm locks that kept Referee Ed. die Coachman busy separating them. Boyd scored with left jabs and right crosses but his tough opponent kept rushing in to slow down the action.

Tells Nation to Get on With Missile Job

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Mahon (D-Tex.) said today the nation should "face the future and get on with the job" of surpassing Russian missile and satellite gains.

Mahon, chairman of the House Defense Appropriations subcommittee, talked with newsmen as the House called up for expected unanimous passage a $1,410,000,000 money bill to help speed U.S. defense preparations.

The total includes the full $1,200,000,000 in new funds asked by President Eisenhower and authority to transfer another 150 millions — 40 millions more than Eisenhower asked — of available funds to missiles and other newer programs.

An agreement to take no roll call votes until Thursday this week delayed final House action on a bill to raise the national debt limit to 280 billion dollars from the present 275 billions.

The House shouted down a move aimed at holding the increase to three billions.

Rep. Martin (Mass), House Republican leader, urged Republican members "not to put our own administration in a strait-jacket" by rejecting the increase.

"We must face the fact that we have realities to consider," he said in reference to expected increases in defense costs.

Rep. Byrnes (R-Wis.) contended the boost would encourage more spending. Sen. Mason (R-Ill.), agreeing, blamed the high debt level on "both the New Deal spenders and the Modern Republican spenders."

Little opposition was expected to the defense money bill, and Mahon expressed confidence "we can meet the challenge to our country."

While "our intelligence people have become aware of a previous miscalculation of Soviet progress," Mahon said, "by no means have we fallen on our faces."

"Despite the mistakes of the past this country has made great progress. It has been substantial. But we must move much faster."

There were no major amendments in sight to alter the allotment $1,410,000,000 total. About half would go for missile speedup and half for construction of missile-carrying submarines and new facilities for the Strategic Air Command's "alert" networks.

MacArthur to Observe 78th Birthday

By LAMAR FALKNER
NEW YORK (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur — who once said, "Old soldiers never die, they just fade away" — will quietly celebrate his 78th birthday Sunday.

An aide said MacArthur will spend the day with his family at their Waldorf Towers apartment and then attend a dinner party given for him by members of his World War II staff.

The center of stormy controversy seven years ago when President Truman recalled him from the Far East, MacArthur has become increasingly shy of the public limelight in recent years. The aide said there are no prospects of a news conference or even a statement on his birthday.

MacArthur's health is "excellent," the aide said. Carried on the Army's active list without assigned military duties, he is board chairman of Sperry-Rand Corp.

It was after Truman fired him as supreme Allied commander in the Far East in 1951 that MacArthur made his famous "Old Soldier" speech. He and Truman disagreed on whether the Korean War should be carried to the Red China mainland. Truman saw that as posing a threat of general war. The birthday party with members of his Pacific Theater staff has become a tradition. The party this year will be the 12th, arranged by retired Maj. Gen. L. J. Sverdrup of St. Louis.

Last year's guest list included Gen. George Kenney, Gen. Walter Krueger and Adm. Thomas Kinkaid, who headed MacArthur's air, land, and naval forces respectively in the World War II Pacific campaign.

MacArthur spoke last July at the annual meeting of Sperry-Rand stockholders. He blasted high taxes as leading the nation toward socialism.

"The effects may not yet be fully evident to the superficial eye," he declared, "but the erosion of incentive, ingenuity and integrity that results will be as deadly as the hidden cancer is to life."

MacArthur makes few public appearances, preferring to remain at home with his wife and 20-year-old son Arthur, a sophomore at Columbia University. An aide said he goes to his office regularly but "often receives visitors at his apartment."

This Man Had a Hard Luck Story

ST. JOSEPH (AP)—Joe Stewart was in magistrate court today with a hard luck story.

He was arrested by highway patrolmen last week on a charge of careless and reckless driving. He said today that his new car had gone into a ditch and he needed capital. The dice game was raided by police early Saturday morning and Joe was fined $25 in police court for gaming by dice.

Today he appeared in Magistrate Margaret Young's court and told his story. Pleading guilty to the traffic charge, he was fined $25.

Father Kills Two in Family, Himself

BEATRICE, Neb. (AP)—A father killed two members of his family today, critically wounded two others, then took his own life. He clubbed his 14-year-old son with a gun but while the boy was telephoning police for help.

Police Chief Gene H. Burton Sherman Dean Williams, 41, a shoe repair shop operator here, shot four members of his family with a .32 automatic pistol, then shot himself.

The dead are Williams, his wife, Dorothy, 39, and a son, Richard, 9.

In critical condition with gunshot wounds in the head are Cathy, 6, and Mary Kay, 3. Sherman, the 14-year-old son, received head bruises from the clubbing while he was on the telephone summoning police.

Investigators were unable to ascertain what prompted the shootings.

Ike Refuses Senators Secret Data

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today refused to provide senators studying missile-satellite problems with copies of two top secret reports on proposed improvement of the nation's defense.

Democratic Leader Johnson (D-Tex.), chairman of the special Senate subcommittee on the White House letter of refusal.

"After careful consideration of the requests from yours and several other committees for the so-called Killian and Gaither panel reports, I have concluded that I cannot properly furnish these reports to the Congress or release them for publication," the letter said.

Both reports are reported to be sharply critical of the present defense programs and organizations.

One was by a commission headed by H. Rowan Gaither and the other by Dr. James R. Killian, special adviser to the President on scientific matters, and head of

Urges Aid to Small U. S. Businesses

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thye (R-Minn.) urged the Senate Banking Committee today to approve legislation to aid small business concerns in excessive rainfall areas.

Thye said in prepared testimony a large number of small firms in farming areas are in serious difficulty as a result of floods and heavy rainfall last year.

He appeared in support of legislation proposed by himself, Chairman Fulbright (D-Ark), Sen. Eastland (D-Miss.) and others which would authorize disaster loans to small business firms located in places officially proclaimed disaster areas due to excessive rainfall.

Various areas in the Midwest and South were hard hit last year by floods and excessive rainfall. In many areas farmers were unable to harvest cotton, corn and other crops in the normal season. Some crops were severely damaged.

Thye said dealers in farm implements, fertilizer, seed, feed, tractors and combines, oil and other supplies and services essential to agriculture were in a squeeze.

Many farmers to whom these concerns have extended credit, Thye said, now are unable to meet their obligations because of ruined crops.

This has led to a virtual standstill in sales and the dealer being caught with mounting inventories and no means of financing them until farmers are able to pay up, Thye said.

"Our farmers in these areas must have immediate help to put them on a cash basis during planting and harvest season and the small businessmen cannot be expected to extend themselves further as a credit agency for the farmers' open accounts," he said.

"He said the Small Business Administration now makes disaster loans to small firms which suffer economic losses resulting from drought conditions."

He said he could see no reason to grant financial relief in the case of inadequate rainfall and deny it in case of excessive rainfall.

Snow Covers the Cliffs of Dover

LONDON (AP) — A blizzard dumped 18 inches of snow today on the white cliffs of Dover and elsewhere along Britain's southern coast.

High winds piled up five-foot drifts in Kent, south of London. Many villages were isolated and traffic in Dover, Folkestone and Margate was at a standstill.

More than 100 passengers on a ship from France were held up at Dover for hours because a train could not get through.

In Holland, a blizzard tied up shipping at the mouth of the Scheldt River.

Two More Lanes For Benton-L.R. Road

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Highway Director Herbert Eldridge today said that bids may be asked for the two additional lanes of the new Little Rock-Benton route between the Saline County line and Benton at the Feb. 28 meeting of the Highway Commission.

Work on the additional lanes between Little Rock and the county line is near completion, Eldridge said.

The commission today authorized $1,200,000 in seal coating for roads this summer. The work will be spread over 1,219 miles of road.

Only One Union Still Holding Out

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Only one out of four unions involved in a large-scale work stoppage here still has not come to terms with the Associated General Contractors.

The ironworkers union is the last holdout. Agreements have been signed between the AGC and the cement finishers and plasterers, the carpenters and laborers unions.

Agreement was reached between the contractors and the laborers yesterday. The carpenters signed a new agreement Monday night and the cement finishers and plasterers had earlier come to terms.

Under the 3-year pact approved yesterday, the laborers get a 10-cent an hour immediate wage boost, another 10 cents Oct. 1, a 5-cent increase Next Jan. 1, five cents more July 1, 1959 and five cents Jan. 1, 1960.

Negotiations between the contractors and the ironworkers are continuing, it was announced.

Between 8,000 and 10,000 men were involved in the stoppage which began Jan. 1.

Indian Judge Fines Ku Klux Klansman

LUMBERTON, N.C. (AP) — An Indian judge today convicted a Ku Klux Klansman of carrying a concealed weapon and of public drunkenness at a KKK rally near here last Saturday night that Indians broke up with gunfire.

Asst. Recorder's Court Judge Lacy Manor gave Klansman James Garland Martin of Reidsville, N.C., a lecture before giving him a 60-day suspended sentence upon payment of a $60 fine and court costs. It could have been two years and $100 fine and costs.

"You came into a community where there is a happy, contented people who frown on violence," the 55-year-old judge told the Klansman. Martin, along with about 50 other Klansmen, had been chased off a field near Maxton, by a band of Lumbee Indians who fired rifles and shotguns into air and earth amid wild whoops. "You came with a gun. Obviously, you did not bring good will."

In low, measured tones, the judge continued: "Our people (Indians) can't understand why you would want to come among a happy people and bring and create discord."

"You have helped to bring about nationwide advertisement to a people who do not want that kind of advertisement — who only want to create a community that would be an asset to our nation."

"If your organization had something worthwhile to offer us, we would be happy to have you. But the history of your organization proves that it has nothing to offer."

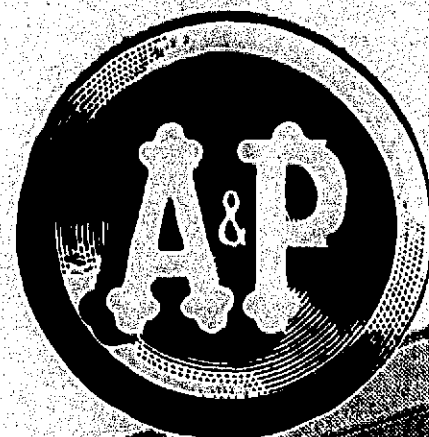

Judge Manor told the defendant, shifting weight from foot to foot, that he was being tried as an individual violator of the peace — not as a Klansman.

Have a Spade, Mr. Hitchcock, Will Travel

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—There follows an open letter to Alfred Hitchcock, who has been running an advertisement in New York newspapers for a grave digger:

"Dear Mr. Hitchcock: I write in answer to your advertisement for a grave digger who must, you say, be 'close-mouthed, experienced in all soils, adept at concealment, should be six feet deep, 60 minute man — but gentle.'"

"Young and Rubicam, the advertising agency handling your search, reports that the response has been overwhelming. Hundreds of cards and letters, a protest from the grave diggers' union that the job should be done by a union man, a spade sent in the mail, etc., etc."

"This is quite astonishing in light of the fact that few knew the nature of the assignment. I was aware of the type of job only because of your invitation, sent to numerous television writers, to spend a weekend at Miami Beach with you, your wife and the sponsor of your excellent CBS-TV weekly program."

"I moved me deeply when you remarked on 'the dreary prospect of spending a weekend with a sponsor' and issued your invitation to 'a cultural retreat' of writers in 'the old world charm of Miami Beach.' Only the objection of my employer, who protests any expense to a cultural retreat anywhere, prevented me from flying to your side."

"Well, Mr. Hitchcock, to come to the point, I am your man."

"Close-mouthed? Ah, the off-the-record secrets that burden my knees that a certain actress soul. Who but I, for instance, drinks caramel-colored water which she pretends is Scotch?"

"Experienced in all soils? The answer is self-evident if you read my column. Name a type of soil that my little shovel hasn't turned over."

"Adept at concealment? My boss constantly complains that I can't be found when I'm needed. 'Should be six feet deep? I am six feet tall and just able to see over the pile of press releases that decorate my desk.'"

"A 60-minute man? This is the ideal working day when I constantly strive to achieve."

"Gentle? I truly am, but as I pointed out above, I'm adept at concealment."

"Have, spade, Mr. Hitchcock, Will Travel."

"Gravely Yours, 'Charles Mercer'"

Arkansans Recovering from Wreck in Texas

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP)—Hospital attendants said today four members of the Monroe McDonald family from Pine Bluff, Ark., are recovering from injuries in a highway crash.

McDonald, 46, suffered multiple lacerations and bruises and possible chest injuries in the accident 23 miles east of Amarillo Saturday. His wife, Maxine, 41, suffered severe face cuts. Their daughters, Sherry, 17, and Linda, 14, were not injured seriously.

State highway patrolmen said a car driven by Buddy Herbert Amos, 30, Amarillo, passed a pickup truck and struck the left front of the McDonald car as both traveled east. Amos and a companion, James Luther Baker, 33, Amarillo, also were hospitalized. "The crash occurred two miles east of Conway, Tex., on U. S. Highway 60."

Usual life expectancy of a rat is 18 months.

Bank Reserve Rate May Aid Business

By STERLING GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Financial circles forecast a boost for business and the stock market as a result of the Federal Reserve Board's approval of a lower discount rate today at the Philadelphia Reserve Bank.

News of the money-easing move, a reduction in the discount rate from 3 to 2 — per cent for that district, raised prices on the Pacific Coast Stock Exchange in San Francisco yesterday.

The exchange still had 45 minutes of trading time remaining when the announcement was issued.

The Philadelphia district reduction is effective today. The other Federal Reserve banks are expected to request similar reductions shortly.

The discount rate is the interest Federal Reserve banks charge their member banks for borrowed money.

The reduction will permit commercial banks to lower their own interest charges to corporations and individuals, thus encouraging the financing of new product lines, plant expansion and other business ventures.

New York's biggest bank, the Chase Manhattan, immediately said it was cutting its prime interest rate — that charged big borrowers with top credit ratings — from 4 1/2 to 4 per cent today. Some observers predicted other big institutions would follow quickly.

World's Tallest Man Dies at Turrel, Ark.

TURRELL, Ark. (AP)—James Grover (Big Jim) Tarver, who was billed as "the world's tallest man" while performing with the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus, died yesterday at his farm home near here. He was 72.

Tarver, a native of Franklin, Tex., was 8 feet 6 inches tall. During the 26 years he toured the world as a circus giant he weighed 435 pounds. He weighed 400 when he died.

While passing through Arkansas years ago Tarver stopped at Turrell to repair a flat tire. He liked the area and bought a farm where he retired.

Tarver disliked talking about his size. He drove a car with special seating arrangements. When he entered a Memphis hospital in 1954 he had to take his 10-foot-long bed with him.

Survivors include the widow and a stepson, Oran Wilkins of Bossier City, La.

Funeral services will be held at West Memphis tomorrow.

The Last Sundown
By L. P. HOLMES

Harley Ritter spoke up. "I imagine that any day you kill a nigh, Sebastian, could turn out to be a rough one."

Sebastian saw the color fade from Anne's cheeks.

Sebastian looked at Anne again, his words all for her.

"If the right of extreme accessibility had been on my side, Anne, then Dick Bruce would have me behind bars right now."

She stared into the fire. "If you say you had to do it, I believe you."

The words carried no conviction or warmth of understanding.

"I'm glad you believe me, Anne. But I wonder how long you'll remember it? Not as some thing that had to be, but as something I did. Think on it, Anne. For of a sudden I have to know and care."

The tone, the stern impact of his words, brought her quickly around to face him.

"What do you mean, Ward? I don't believe I understand."

"Anne, you and I have been aimlessly marking time, and I see neither point nor sense to such any longer. It's high time we faced realities. Either there is something worthwhile ahead for the pair of us, or there isn't. And tonight I want to know about that—for certain!"

There was, in Anne Biglow, a streak of calculating materialism, an outright decision in anything was something she never wished to give unless it suited her exactly reasoned desire. So now, instead of answering Sebastian's question, she took refuge in one of her own.

"You've been saying what you want to know. Very well, this is what I want to know. Who is Constance Ashland, and what is she doing at your ranch?"

Sebastian considered her intently while his lips pulled to a shadowy, mirthless, cynical smile. She had neatly side-stepped and, looking back over their relationship from its very beginnings, he could see where she had always been adept at side-stepping obligations and decisions. And she would never change, for in her there lay selfishness, and an inherent evasiveness.

Sebastian turned and put his glance on Harley Ritter.

"Carrying still other tales, eh, Harley? And you didn't tell this one right either, did you?"

In Harley Ritter's answering shrug there was a smug mockery. "No need for you to squirm, Sebastian—providing everything is on the square."

Abrupt harshness blazed in Sebastian. "You contemptible little whelp! Watch that loose mouth of yours or I'll shake some manners into you!"

"Ward!" reminded Anne sharply. "You haven't answered me."

He turned to her again.

"My dear," he said evenly, "I

Missing Man Says He Just Blacked Out

OAKLAND, Calif. (UP) — An Oakland insurance man who disappeared two weeks ago telephoned his father last night from Arkansas, reporting he had suffered a "blackout."

The missing man is John O. Chapman, 37, who was last seen the evening of Jan. 7 when he left his home to collect insurance premiums.

Chapman's blood-spattered station wagon was found two days later, his empty wallet was in the front seat. He was believed to have been carrying more than $200 at the time.

Last night, Chapman telephoned his father, Perry Chapman, from Lavaca, Ark., where the son grew up. He said two men had jumped him while he was making his collections and hit him in the face.

That was the last he remembered, he said, until he "came to" yesterday in Lavaca. He said a boyhood friend recognized him and took him to his sister's home there.

Later, Chapman's wife, Audrey, telephoned her sister-in-law and talked to her husband. She said

He collapsed as he entered the house restaurant with a guest and was rushed to Walter Reed Army Hospital, where he was pronounced dead shortly after arrival.

Aides said death was supposedly of a heart attack. Smith suffered such an attack several years ago.

Smith fell to the floor of the House restaurant. Mrs. Smith hurried to his side from the House Office Building and Dr. George Calver, the Capitol physician, ordered adrenalin administered.

Reps. Kenney (R-Ill.) and Andersen (R-Minn.) and Sen. Neely (D-WVa.) have died this year. Smith's death makes the House

Rep. Smith of Wisconsin Dies Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Lawrence H. Smith, Wisconsin Republican, collapsed and died today. He was 65.

Smith was the fourth member of Congress to die this year.

He told her he was "tired and broke" but planned to return home a few days after resting up. They have four children.

Log Dweller to Be Released

NEWPORT, Ark. (AP)—Sheriff Ernest Dyke said a vagrancy charge against a log dweller who identified himself as Norbert Laroche of Fall River, Mass., was dismissed in Municipal Court today and that he would release the 34-year-old man from jail.

Laroche has been held since Jan. 10, when officers picked him up after two hunters reported that a beard hermit was living about one mile from downtown Newport.

The Bahamas, British islands off the coast of Florida, have 20 inhabited and a large number of uninhabited islands. The capital is Nassau.

Laroche told officers he had been living inside a hollow log for a month.

The sheriff said an FBI report received today shows that a man with fingerprints matching those of Laroche was arrested last summer at Bridgeville and Wilmington, Del., and Columbus and Kenton, Ohio.

Dyke said the names used were Laroche with variations in spelling. He said the only conviction was at Columbus.
